4 NOMRC Volunteers Complete CERT Training

On April 28-29th, four NOMRC members completed Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training. Over the two days, members learned about how to respond to emergencies until official emergency response personnel arrive on scene. They learned and practiced skills like head-to-toe examinations, using fire extinguishers, and cribbing. CERT hopes to conduct another free training in June. Let Sarah know if you are interested in attending!

Left: Sarah and Frieda work with a team to use leveraging and cribbing to move a 'person'
Center: Lorena, Sarah, Frieda, and Cha-Kara attended CERT training
Right: Cha-Kara practices using a fire extinguisher

NEW MEMBER CORNER

Welcome, Lisa!

Lisa is currently from Mandeville and teaches anatomy at LSU. She has had mass casualty training and plenty of hospital-based trauma response experience but no city-wide experience. Her favorite things to do in NOLA include listening to live music, visiting the aquarium, and eating good food.
